I. Getting Started:

Create an event strategy which includes the following elements:

Where will you hold the event? College campus, community center, local restaurant, country club? Where will you promote the event? Secure a space.

Who will be at this event? and how many people?

Theme for the event? Educational, live music, food, ambiance, social, business?

When during the year would the event be? Time your event announcements?

What does success look like? How will you measure it?

Budget for the event is based on? Charge for attending? Staffing resources?

Partnerships & Sponsors with media, alumni, local associations, etc.?

2. Setting Up Your Event: Event Website

Event Website:

- Use your current business website?
- Create a new website (Wordpress, Wix)
- Create an event registration page (Constant Contact, Eventbrite)

Website needs to include the following:

- Basic event details (event description, location, how to register, etc.)
- Integration of social media
- Focus on registrations
- Easy to tell multiple events apart (if you have other events listed on your page)

Tip: do not post two of the same event at once.

2. Setting Up Your Event: Ticket Registration

Ticket registration

- Online ticketing
- Collect attendee data
- Don't ask too many questions
- If you charge a fee, try to collect on the spot
- Make sure a confirmation email goes out ASAP
- Optional: Pre-event survey (ask what they want and expect)

Add Registrants to Customer Loyalty Program:

- Email marketing – Constant Contact
- Make sure to announce any major changes that are made to the event page once it's published.

Eventbrite – Ticketing

With Eventbrite you can:

- Promote your event with personalized emails to reach more people
- Add events to search engines to gain traffic for your website
- Track attendance by selling tickets and managing registration
- Manage event entry with the Entry Manager app that checks people in and scans barcoded tickets through your phone

3. Event Promotion

Event Calendar Sites, Social Media, Media Sponsors: Meetup, Constant Contact EventSpot, Eventbrite, Zvents, PlanCast, FullCalendar.com

- Promote what you've got.
  - An event can attract more business.
- Collaborate with others.
  - Get other businesses, Charities, involved.
- Feature your calendar.
  - The internet is a great way to publicize!
- Drive pre-event and post-event traffic to your social media and websites
- Email Marketing Campaigns

3. Event Promotion: Twitter

A screenshot of a Twitter profile page for Walnut Creek Events. The profile name is "Walnut Creek Events" with the handle "@WalnutCrkEvents". The bio states: "Walnut Creek Events produces and provides listings of upcoming Walnut Creek Networking, Social, and Business events. Walnut Creek, CA 94596 · WalnutCreekEvents.com". The profile statistics show 28 tweets, 109 following, and 745 followers. A "Following" button is visible. The "Tweets" section shows two tweets from the account: one from May 21st about "Small Business Week - Is it in May or June? - Upcoming Events" with a link to constantcontact.com, and another from March 15th about "Success in 2013 = It's Who You Know! Upcoming Events" with a similar link. The left sidebar shows navigation options like Home, Connect, Discover, and Me, along with a "Who to follow" section listing ABC7 News, NBC Bay Area, and People magazine.

3. Event Promotion: Facebook

3. Event Promotion: LinkedIn Groups

The screenshot shows the LinkedIn interface for a group named "Walnut Creek Events". At the top, the LinkedIn logo and navigation menu are visible. The group's header includes the name "Walnut Creek Events" and a sub-header with tabs for "Discussions", "Members", "Promotions", "Jobs", "Search", "Manage" (with a notification badge of 23), and "More...". Below the header is a light blue banner with the text: "Take a minute to set up your open group for success. Modify write permissions in Group Settings » Edit your Group Rules »". The main content area features a "Start:" section with a profile picture of a man and two options: "Discussion" (selected) and "Poll". The "Discussion" option has a text box containing the message: "Make sure to use LinkedIn Groups and other Social Media platforms before, during, and after events!" and a "101" count. Below the text box is a "Add more details..." field. At the bottom of the "Start:" section are links for "Attach a link", social media sharing icons (Facebook, Twitter), and a "Share" button. Below this is a "Choose Your View" dropdown menu. The first post in the feed is titled "See you Wednesday 5/29 at 5:30pm at the Event on Events in the Oakland Hills -" and includes a profile picture of the same man.

3. Event Promotion: Checklist

- ❑ Getting the word out about your business? Events are current and show up today in search engine results!
- ❑ Current events show up higher in Social Media results (Event Posted on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn?)
- ❑ Event sites empower event organizers to become more efficient and effective when bringing people together. (Have a Meetup group?)
- ❑ Event Sites allow you promote and track your attendance to see how many people are coming to your event.
- ❑ Many services have mobile applications to check people in and scan barcoded tickets through your phone.
- ❑ People everywhere are searching (GOOGLE) to discover great events that matter to them... why not have one?
- ❑ Event Calendar on company website? Is the calendar interactive? Is the calendar updated often? On local event sites? Sfgate? Zvents? Eventful?
